The Institute for African American Studies with the help of University of Georgia Franklin college and The Willson Center will be hosting a student oriented talk and luncheon with Hattie Thomas Whitehead. The book, Giving Voice to Linnentown, and her production, Linnentown: The Musical premiering at the Classic Theatre chronicles the story of her self, her community, and the fallout of programs of urban renewal with Linnentown residents, the city of Athens, and UGA. Join us for this pivotal discussion.
